Finders Keepers: A Novel (The Bill Hodges Trilogy) - Analysis, Summary & Quiz of a Stephen King books

If you are just now beginning to read Finders Keepers, I suggest you first read Mr. Mercedes. Finders Keepers is the second book in a trilogy that follows our main hero William “Bill” Hodges, his partners, Holly Gibney and Jerome Robinson and the Mercedes Killer.

Finders Keepers is more of a side story in Hodges’s life. King does incorporate some of the first books “history” into the second book as in it follows the life of Peter Saubers whose father is one of the victims injured at the City Center due to the Mercedes Killer.

If you continue to read Finders Keepers without reading the first book, that is fine. The second book is mainly of how Peter Saubers finds a trunk in a tree, hidden there by the villainous Morris Bellamy.

Stephen King gives us the perfect depiction of good and evil in both of the characters Peter Saubers and Morris Bellamy, while showing us a relativity between the two.

The book is broken into four separate parts, the first part being the timeline jump between Morris and Peter. By the second half, we stick to the 21st century where Peter’s and Morris’s story clashes.

While you may enjoy Peter Sauber’s storyline, check out Mr. Mercedes and End of Watch to continue the tale of William Hodges.
