Dark Toll (The Shadow Patriots) (Volume 4) Warren Ray
In Dark Toll, the story picks up where it left off, in Jackson Michigan, after the Battle on Robinson Road. The enemy is licking their wounds while continuing to surround the city. Meanwhile, the Shadow Patriots now have prisoners to interrogate, which produces an unexpected asset. Nick Posey, the undercover cop, continues to spy in Jackson and proves to be a deadly threat to the Shadow Patriots. Discovering who he is tops a growing list of demands they must complete, which include the evacuation of the town's citizens. Winters makes a tragic mistake that costs the lives of some of his men. This fatal error weighs him down and forces inner demons to resurface. Overcoming these demons will be even more of a challenge as he prepares to confront his daughter, Cara, who has arrived in Grosse Pointe as a guest of Mordulfah. This confrontation will be the ultimate test of his loyalty and endurance. In Washington DC, Major Green continues to work with his new well-connected friends to break up the cabal of Perozzi and Reed. However, his inexperience of the spy business puts him in a race with the enemy to save the life of one of his allies.
