The Care Workers Handbook TEST COMPANION: The Care Workers Handbook TEST COMPANION Mr Antonio Rosario De Maria
This workbook serves as an assessment and examination book in conjunction THE CARE WORKERS HANDBOOK, the textbook for carers in a workplace or at home. This book allows you to test yourself so you can check that you have the knowledge to carry out your duties as competently as possible. In many cases if you are studying to be a carer your assessor or examiner will administer this and assess your answers. This assessment, although not difficult, will require some diligence on your part. To make the best of what you are doing you will need to organise your time efficiently so you can progress through the program more effectively. Written work will be expected of you, so you will need to follow the typical rules of written English and present your ideas well so that the assessor will be able to make sense of your work. This Test /Assessment book contains a variety of assessment methods including; • Short answer questions • Fill in the missing words • Observation and reporting • Checklists • Short essays • Role play and observation This book has been laid out so you may use it to simply fill in the required answers in the spaces provided. In the case of self-assessment this is all you will need. Its simple; Read the chapter (in The Care Workers Handbook) thoroughly and answer the questions. You can do it as an open book exam or as a closed book exam.
