Sounds Spooky Christopher Cheng
It's dark and there are spooky sounds filling the air. Who, or what, is making them?

Whistling wind through the trees,
Squealing bats flying past,
Knocking noises on my window...

What's that noise I can hear?

This scary picture book is perfect for Halloween. Filled with onomatopoeia and a delightfully spooky twist, it will have young readers listening for those scary sounds and chanting, "What's that noise that I can hear? I'm not scared!"
