Take Me Far Away Kemdi Ik

All I want to do is forget, pretend it never happened, scream at the top of my lungs.

Seventeen-year-old Jeanne Rowe used to love Life . . . until Life took a sharp turn and never straightened out. Haunted by memories she would rather forget, she tries to push forward, leaving those despised memories tightly locked in a dark place.

Four months after the life-altering incident, all seems well, until an unforeseen figure re-enters her life. Then she discovers that those memories weren't ever locked up. They had only been waiting for the right moment to take her down—beneath rock bottom.

I'm fine. I'll be fine . . .

But even she knows better.
