By His Grace Chi T Davis
The daughter of an American Soldier, who fled to America as a Vietnamese refugee, shares her story of how her relationship with the Lord was made stronger by each of the trials she endured throughout her life. Chi Davis recounts how the terrors and hardships of war, abandonment, physical and psychological abuse, fear, depression and other personal struggles were part of God's plan to bring her to a personal relationship with Him. Each seemingly devastating life event is shown to glorify the Lord and demonstrates that He is the one in control. Beginnings, Separations, Brokenness, Grace: each tell a story of struggles and redemption where the author recounts how the Spirit was using each tribulation to draw her to Salvation."
