Danika Renard is the only grandchild, and living relative of the late Elspeth Brookfield. So, it came as no surprise to her that after his death he left her his entire estate--a home and a stable with six beautiful white horses. Fired with enthusiasm, and eager to start her new life, she leaves Oahu, Hawaii, and settles at her new home in Big Island, Hawaii. Her glorious mood, however, is short-lived. Adjoining her property is a high-tech horse breeding operation owned by Dalton Rutherford--her ex-husband. The charismatic and wealthy Dalton realizes his mistake divorcing Danika and wants this chance to make things right. However, the defiant purpled-eyed beauty decides to protect her heart and her pride from humiliation again. But under the scorching Hawaiian sun, her resolve to remain impervious to him melts her hardened heart. His seductive caresses and intoxicating kisses ignite a firestorm of passion in her that is irresistible. But in the heat of their sizzling romance extraordinary situations begin to unfold. Family interventions, envy, and jealousy has devastating consequences that threaten the lover's romantic affair. Making things worse, someone from Danika's past suddenly appears to claim a share of her inheritance. Amid this turmoil, could there be hope for a future for them in this Hawaiian paradise?
