The Boy's Book of Lists David P. Langston, Robert Leighton

What's this book all about? One word?boys.

This is the one and only fill-in-the-blank, make-lists book that's aimed solely at boys. All the pertinent subjects are covered: name, age, rank, friends, favorite sports, favorite movies, best places to hang out, and even the grossest things you ever found in your pocket. Any boy can capture the essence of who he is in this book. And with any luck, he'll come across his dog-eared copy in years to come and be able to have an embarrassing laugh with his kids.

For boys to do, for boys to share?this is a book that's custom-made for sharing and comparing. It is a cleverly disguised journal that will provide boys with the opportunity to record all the many facets of themselves and their lives through a series of lists. It's fun. It's funny. And it's easy. A book that will single-handedly crush any boy's resistance to writing and keeping a journal, it taps into the male's inclination to make lists, and its tongue-in-cheek humor and riotous cartoon illustrations are sure to keep boys of all ages laughing.
