Dragonoak: The Sky Beneath The Sun Sam Farren
(This is the second book in a series.)

The days when Rowan Northwood was exiled to the farmland around her village seem like a lifetime ago, and the passing Knight she ran away with has become a memory she does her best not to revisit. Her powers lie dormant, settling within her as glowing embers waiting to come alive once more.

Canth is a scorching land built upon disorder and neglect, and having traded the sheep of Felheim's fields for the fish of the sea, Rowan finds herself living amongst pirates. Port Mahon takes her in, accepts her as one of their own, but throughout peaceful days and violent assaults on the town alike, her thoughts are ever on Kastelir--or what remains of it.
