Baghdad Believer: a Sunni Muslim Experiences Jesus in the Midst of Destruction and Violence J Nealson
This first-person story paints a picture of the daily life of a Sunni Muslim, a shopkeeper, living in Baghdad.

The internal worlds of Muslims, the worlds of honor & shame and anger & fear, are the keys to understanding why Iraq is such a violent place.
But, this story gives hope that reconciliation and peace with God and with family can and does happen.
This hope you can experience through this book -- that most Iraqis seek a better life where there is peace and trust.

Find truth and inspiration through this story written from the personal viewpoint of an Iraqi who is brave enough to tell his story.
