Children of the Fallen Brian Kutzley
Millennia ago, angels descended from Heaven to produce children with human women. The angels were imprisoned for their crime, and their children – a race of giants known as the nephilim – were nearly exterminated. Some, however, survived. Present: Kamilah, an Iranian-American teenager stuck in rural Pennsylvania, is near panic as she begins to develop strange abilities. The arrival of Goel, an emissary claiming to represent the remaining nephilim, does nothing to improve matters. Before she knows what's happening, Kamilah finds herself drawn into the ancient drama of the fallen angels and their cursed offspring. The nephilim, still seeking redemption from the crimes of their early years, are as unsure of Kamilah as she is of them. Is she a sign of their long-awaited forgiveness? Or is she a dark omen, heralding the end of both of their worlds?
