It is simply irresistible as refreshment on a summer day or all year round as dessert. In Ice Cream, lovers of this frozen delicacy will find a multitude of recipes for creams, sorbets, granitas, and ice pops. There are classics such as vanilla ice cream together with unusual creations. Try the delicate cinnamon ice, enjoy the raspberry champagne sorbet, or surprise your children with strawberry cheesecake popsicles. All the recipes are free from synthetic colorants and other additives. Each of the over 60 recipes is explained step-by-step and pictured in an appetizing photo. The basics of ice-cream making, with or without a machine, are explained in detail in the introduction. There is also a short history of ice cream and an explanation of the main types of ice cream, from granita to frozen yogurt. An appendix with basic recipes for the main toppings completes the book. So now there is nothing to hinder creative ice cream delectation!
