Logic, Construction, Computation (Ontos Mathematical Logic)

Over the last few decades the interest of logicians and mathematicians in constructive and computational aspects of their subjects has been steadily growing, and researchers from disparate areas have realized that they can benefit enormously from the mutual exchange of techniques concerned with those aspects. A key figure in this exciting development is the logician and mathematician Helmut Schwichtenberg, to whom this volume is dedicated on the occasion of his seventieth birthday and his turning emeritus. The volume contains twenty articles from leading experts about recent developments in constructive set theory, provably recursive functions, program extraction, theories of truth, constructive mathematics, classical vs. intuitionistic logic, inductive definitions, and continuous functionals and domains.
