My Zion National Park Journal: To Commemorate the Centennial of the National Park Service 1916-2016 (National Park Journals) (Volume 6) Frederick Fichman
To Commemorate the Centennial of the National Park Service 1916-2016 Over 307 million people per year visit the 412 units of the National Park Service, including the 59 National Parks. To acknowledge those visits and to allow those visitors the opportunity to memorialize what they have experienced and what they have seen we are releasing this series of U.S. National Park Journals. Included are daily experience and memories pages as well as a foreword including information for each of the 10 top most visited parks in the system. Also included is short summary of the establishment of the National Park Service a unit of the Department of the Interior. A Travel Items list is also included at the front of each Journal. Mark Twain said it best: “Twenty years from now you will be more disappointed by the things that you didn’t do than by the ones you did do. So throw off the bowlines. Sail away from the safe harbor. Catch the trade winds in your sails. Explore. Dream. Discover.”
