The Kingmaker's Lover: Historical Romance Novel- War of the Roses Dana Arpquest
1460, Alys Fitzgerald, a young Irish heiress, arrives in England in the heart of the War of the Roses unaware that she is to become a White Rose of York. Armed with determination, courage and stubbornness, Alys intends to pursue freedom. However, her plans change when she comes across love, scheming and treachery. Exiled from court, she fights against injustice to keep her rank and her Love. A romantic tale where history intertwines with fiction, love with war, and life with death. For the fans of Anne O'brien and Elizabeth Chadwick, this historical romance is ideal if you like a strong heroine and light reading books. The original title of this book was Alba Rosa Foe Review from the Historical Novel Society " The characters are engaging and as a light, entertaining novel this should satisfy readers who prefer courtly love over bloody battles."
