Fighting in Hockey

J. Alexander Poulton

Fighting in Hockey J. Alexander Poulton
Fighting has been a feature of hockey since the earliest days of the sport. The long standing debate as to whether fighting should be permitted by players during a game continues to this day. Professional hockey club owners and many fans want to keep fighting in the game for its excitement and drama__hockey as a gladiator sport.

Emotions tend to flare onthe subject. Poulton attemps to provide a balanced perspective on the role that fighting plays in the North American game of hockey, examining its history and its role in modern popular culture.
