The first of the Special Places series, this established guide is a bestseller. With its huge variety and range of good value places to stay, it's an indispensable guide for those travelling round France. Special places from all over France are included, including ski chalets and seaside homes, châteaux and farmhouses – a collection honed over many years. Entries are chosen for their character and settings, friendly owners, great food and value for money. Seriously good value too – over 500 of these Special Places have rooms for €80 or less.
