The Forgotten Generation NIck Lombardi
I chose to write this story at the 50th Anniversary of the start of the Korean War . The Korean Conflict, as it was called, was a real war that the US chose not to declare a war. We are part of the forgotten generation. Born after the depression of the late 20's and spaced between the returning GI's of WW II, the baby boomers and the Vietnam War, which was declared a war, even though it was unpopular. I never remembered a war in history that would kill thousands or millions of people, called popular. The chapters you will read are pulled from conversations and tapes from Cpl. Frank Chimera and put into form with the writer. I didn
