Now in the NBA, Quincy is looking for someone to keep him company on the road. He is ready to settle down, and he wants to do it with Kayla. While Kayla is still stalling for time, Quincy is opening up his options. Inergee is an option, and she wants to spend time with him, but her time is limited. Sydnee is always an option, but after a visit with her, she may be off his list for good. Quincy has his plate full with women, but his head is still in the game. The more hate he receives from his teammate, Karter, just fuels him. Preseason is getting ready to start, and he is ready to showcase his talent to the world. His eyes are on the starting position, and the more people angered him, the harder he goes. Karter and the women in his life were giving him exactly what he needs to be successful. When Inergee comes to town, and it scrambles everything up again. Inergee wants him to escort her to her video release party, and Kayla doesn't like it one bit. She doesn't like that Quincy's spending time with the sexy superstar. When she catches Inergee leaving Quincy's apartment, and she calls him Big Daddy, it causes a big argument. Their altercation escalates and it leaves someone heartbroken. This could be the argument that could end them forever. Will they fight to stay together, or will they agree to go their separate ways? Will Inergee coming to town spark a fire in their relationship? Will Kayla really leave Kenyon, or will she continue to string Quincy along? Will Inergee snatch Quincy from under Kayla, or will that force Kayla into a decision? All of these questions, and more will be answering in this series.
