Sweet Talkers (Richard Kasak Books) Kathleen K.
A rare, completely honest look behind the provocative advertisements and 970 prefixes that have come to symbolize an American obsession. Kathleen K. ran a phone sex company in the late '80s, and she opens up her diary for a very thought-provoking peek at the life of a phone sex operator and reveals a number of secrets and surprises. Because far from being a sleazy, underground scam, the service Kathleen provides goes straight to the heart of the American sexual zeitgeist. Transcripts of actual conversations are included.
