The Catholic Formulary in Accordance with the Code of Canon Law: Volume 4: Second Instance Marriage Nullity Acts Rev. Peter O. Akpoghiran
The Catholic Formulary in Accordance with the Code of Canon Law, Volume 4: Second Instance Marriage Nullity Acts has been completely revised and updated pursuant to the promulgations of Mitis Iudex and Mitis et Misericors. This volume treats the various appellate processes which appellate bishops or appellate tribunals are competent to adjudicate in accordance with the norm of law. Even if the bishop or the tribunal is incompetent to adjudicate the appeal, the canonical procedures for absolute incompetence are included in this book. You will find in this volume, for example, the step-by-step procedural norms of the law which are to be observed and sample forms of the various documents which are to be drawn up when a processus brevior appeal from a first instance bishop has been made to the competent second instance bishop. These norms of law and the sample documents pertain to both when the second instance bishop rejects the processus brevior appeal or when he remits the processus brevior appeal to ordinary examination in second instance. In addition, there are also in this book a step-by-step outline and discussion of more than ten canonical procedures pertaining to ordinary second instance tribunals. Each of the appellate procedure included in this book is accompanied by sample form documents which can be adapted and modified by the appellate bishop or appellate tribunal. Canonists, students of canon law, tribunal officials, jurists, and other interested permissions will find in this book a goldmine of information on the canon law of judicial appeal and complaint of nullity and appeal in matrimonial nullity causes of the Roman Catholic Church.
