The House That Wasn't There (The Christie McKinnon Adventures) (Volume 2) Colin Garrow

There's a new trade in the city - one that deals in children.

On a cold November morning in 1890's Edinburgh, Christie McKinnon and her pal Donal discover a young boy is missing from home. And he's not the only one - someone is stealing children and taking them to a mysterious house on Deadman's Lane. With an eye on a good story, Christie sets out to investigate, but the house is not all it seems to be...
