Walls enclose rooms and constitute their visible outer shell. Therefore, the design of walls plays a crucial role in the appearance and identity of a room. The range of extends from color, be it uniform, multi-color or partial, via plastering and wallpaper all the way to wainscoting, fabric, and leather.
This compendium presents wall coverings in a great variety of looks and materials, showing their respective effects in different rooms. The possibilities are practically never ending and creative solutions are very trendy nowadays. Published by two successful "hospitality design" experts, the volume serves equally as a reference manual for specialists and a valuable source of inspiration for private homes.
