Take full responsibility for your social life
Always look for ways to expand your circle of friends
Singles are attracted to those who make them feel good about themselves
Before you go on a date, make sure the clothes you are wearing fit properly
Never tell a sexist joke
Be modest-you want to shine, not show off
Be sincere and natural
Listen intently. You want to learn as much as you can, so you can decide if this is the right person for you.
Ask lots of questions-but don't interrogate.
Too much "togetherness" can spoil even the best of romances

Each of the 2002 books are filled with creative, zany, sometimes off-the-wall ideas for finding and wooing that special someone. These books make it fun-and easy-to be romantic.
