It’s that time of year again. The weather has gotten colder, the days have gotten shorter, and it seems no matter how hard you try, you have to wrap yourself in several layers of clothing if you want to even begin to feel warm. You put on the hoodies, you put on the scarves, and you practically live in your beanies, but even all of these aren’t enough to keep some of the worst of winter’s bite at bay. If you want to make sure you are warm enough to face all of the elements, you are going to have to break out the big guns.
